

2000: 2-day ASMQ is first-line treatment for Pf malaria

2001: Universal Care Scheme (UCS) implemented

2002: Scale-up of malaria clinics & malaria posts

2008: 3-day ASMQ is first-line treatment for Pf malaria

2008: Chloroquine is first-line treatment for Pv malaria

2009: Artemisinin resistance containment project begins in 7 provinces

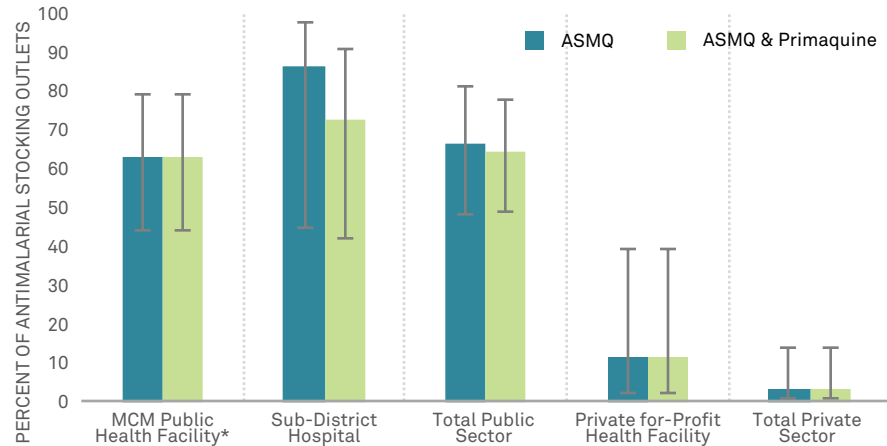

2015: DHA PPQ introduced as first-line treatment in 8 provinces

2016: DHA PPQ is national first-line treatment for Pf

104 = N. of ANTIMALARIAL-STOCKING OUTLETS

Proportion of outlets with ASMQ in stock:

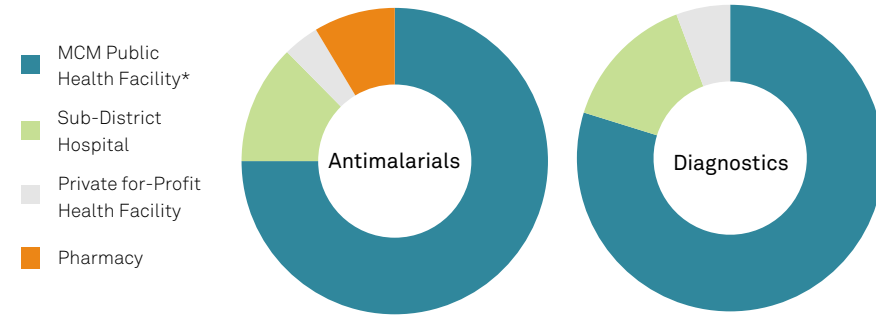

Most antimalarial-stocking public outlets had the current first-line treatment for Pf in stock.

<10% of antimalarial-stocking outlets reported distributing an antimalarial in the previous week

Antimalarial & diagnostics market composition:

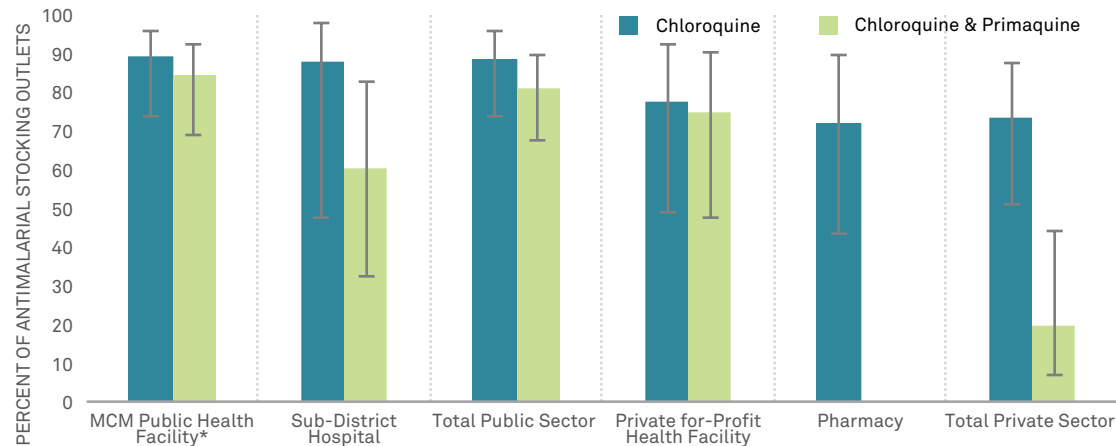

88% of the antimalarial market composition & 94% of the malaria diagnostics market composition was comprised of the public sector.

Among all outlets with malaria blood testing available, 61% reported providing a malaria test in the previous week.

Proportion of outlets with chloroquine in stock:

Most antimalarial-stocking outlets had the current first-line treatment for Pv in stock.

Proportion of outlets stocking malaria blood testing

Most antimalarial-stocking outlets had malaria blood testing available.

*Malaria Case Management (MCM) Public Health Facilities include provincial and district hospitals, malaria clinics, and malaria posts/border malaria posts.